

Last year at this time St. Andrew's joined our Muslim sisters and brothers in observing Kurban Bayram, the Feast of Sacrifice, which this year falls between 11th and 14th August.

Traditionally at this time offerings are given to help those in need. In a magnificent response St Andrew's raised £500 which was presented to the Karakum Special Needs Centre in Girne.

We are once again joining with the wider community in observing this tradition. To this end a retiring collection will be made over the next few Sundays and the proceeds this year will be given to the Kemal Saraçoğlu Foundation for Children with Leukaemia and the Fight Against Cancer. The Foundation was named after a young cancer patient named Kemal Saraçoğlu who fought cancer for a year but sadly and passed away on the 30th of August 2000. It was constituted with the aim of raising awareness in society about cancer and to provide for treatment, education, social and psychological consultancy services to children fighting cancer.

Please be as generous as you can for this worthy cause. It is hoped that we can join with other charities in raising sufficient funds to buy a necessary piece of equipment to help with the treatment of those young patients in the State Hospital Oncology Unit, Lefkoşa.

BLISTER SISTERS - A TRAIL of 3 CITIES Over a period of 7 days from October 16th Lynda Hillard and three friends will be walking 200km. These four friends, with an average age of 61½, will be walking from Girne to Gazimağusa to Lefkoşa and back to Girne. Their aim is to raise as much money as possible for Tulips (Help Those with Cancer Association) Currently 208,000 Turkish Lira (nearly £30,000) is needed every month to help a growing number of cancer patients here in North Cyprus.

Generous God, you give us gifts and make them grow: though our faith is small as mustard seed, make it grow to your glory and the flourishing of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN

First Reading: Ecclesiastes 1: 2, 12-14 2:18-23 Sandy Oram

Psalms 49: 1-12 Kimberly Wakando

1 Hear this, all you peoples; listen, all you that dwell in the world,

2 You of low or high degree, both rich and poor together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom and my heart shall meditate on understanding.

4 I will incline my ear to a parable; I will unfold my riddle with the lyre.

5 Why should I fear in evil days, when the malice of my foes surrounds me,

6 Such as trust in their goods and glory in the abundance of their riches?

7 For no one can indeed ransom another or pay to God the price of deliverance.

8 To ransom a soul is too costly; there is no price one could pay for it,

9 So that they might live for ever, and never see the grave.

10 For we see that the wise die also; with the foolish and ignorant they perish and leave their riches to others.

11 Their tomb is their home for ever, their dwelling through all generations, though they call their lands after their own names.

12 Those who have honour, but lack understanding, are like the beasts that perish.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen
