Many years ago the garden of the Hermitage was planted with olive trees and each year "volunteers" come together to gather this bountiful crop to be processed into the not quite yet award-winning, St. Andrew's brand,

Following the picking and subsequent processing the oil has been gently settling, awaiting only the tender ministrations of those who, having sacrificed much to gather together sufficient wine bottles ("only dark-coloured with a screw top") decanted it into the said bottles.

Finally, after much hard work and dedication, the 2017 vintage is ready and is available through the church shop, which is open in the Hall each week after the 10.30 a.m. service.

Forget Beaujolais Nouveau Day, make today St. Andrew's Nouveau Huile d'Olive Day!
