February is one of those months which seems to be a betwixt and between time. Although in the northern hemisphere we might still be experiencing the occasional cold blast of winter, even here in Mediterranean Cyprus, yet the promise of springtime isn't too far behind. Indeed, in Ireland our Celtic ancestors saw 1st February as the first day of spring and celebrated the Feast of Imbolc (pronounced imolg) on that day.

It appears as though Imbolc had been celebrated for generations, at least since Neolithic times. In their wisdom, rather than condemning such practices as being "pagan" and things which should be done away with, the first Christian missionaries to the Celtic lands, particularly Ireland, recognised the deep spiritual yearning that humankind has for such important times and places. Imbolc was associated with the fertility goddess Brigid and so those first missionaries Christianised this to the festival of Saint Brigid on 1st February. And so it continues today, with the making of St Brigid's Crosses being one of the highlights of the school year for children in Ireland.

Because Imbolc celebrated the start of springtime, one of the traditions associated with it was the lighting of fires and candles to commemorate the strengthening power of the sun. This tradition may be the origin of the Christian Feast of Candlemas which is celebrated on 2nd February (or the Sunday closest to that date - this year we will celebrate the Feast on 3rd February). In some churches candles are lit and processed during the service, surely a distant folk memory of our ancestors' practice at this important "turning point" of the year.

At Candlemas we read of the revelation of Jesus in the Temple where he is joyfully greeted by Simeon and Anna. Simeon recites that beautiful hymn, one of the evening canticles from the Prayer Book, the Nunc Dimittis, often used at funeral services:

Lord now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace:
according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen:
thy salvation;

which thou hast prepared:
before the face of all people;

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles:
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

But Simeon goes on to address Jesus' mother, Mary with these words:

'This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed - and a sword will pierce your own soul too.'

So, we too are reminded of what is to come - the Passion of Our Lord and Easter.

Thus, Candlemas is also a "turning point" in the Church's liturgical year. It marks the end of the Christmas/Epiphany season when we celebrated with joy the coming of Christ into the world, the revelation of who he is and that he is the light of the world for ALL people, and we begin our move towards the more sombre, reflective time of Lent. As it says in the introduction to Candlemas in The Promise of His Glory:

It is as if we say, 'One last look back at Christmas, and now, turn towards the cross!'

Please remember to inform the Wardens if you know of someone who is unwell or in hospital. We often hear people say, 'I thought you knew'. It is better that we hear several times than not at all.

Friends of St Andrew's

A letter from Pat Etherington

Hi Everybody,

This is where I wish everyone a very belated, but none the less heartfelt, Happy New Year.

It seems ages since I last sat down to write my 'bit' for the magazine, so here goes.

On Saturday 15th December we had a Scandinavian service conducted by Anders Bergfund, a Swedish priest whose church is at Ayia Napa. It was held in three languages, Norwegian, Swedish and English, which brought smiles to all present. They brought their own very accomplished organist as well, Kristen Bjorå which all added to everyone's enjoyment. Afterward, to round off the occasion, everyone was invited to lunch at the home of Tommy Rmnongo in Alsancak and because of the pleasant day and protected aspect of the garden was enjoyed outside.

On the 23rd we held a service of Nine Lessons and Carols at 4.30pm which was enjoyed as usual by all present. Some members of the Chamber Choir joined with the Church Choir to swell the numbers. The seating had been re-arranged so that people faced one another across the church. Many candles had been lit and placed on nearly every surface. Earl Moffitt led the singing, accompanied on the organ by John Crothers. (Do go onto the website to see all the lovely photos).

St Andrew's had a special treat for our Christmas services as Bishop Michael led the worship for us at the First Communion of Christmas (Midnight Mass) on Christmas Eve, and he also celebrated and preached on Christmas Day. This was made even more special as he also confirmed Denise Umpleby, who had been unable to join the group that had been confirmed in October.

The services in January have all been led for us by Rev'd Michael Graham, who continues as our locum. Some of his sermons have been very thought provoking indeed!

I've been reading the report on the Men's Meet talk on the website about Ebola. It sounds as if the rest of us missed an interesting morning. I also looked at the Kurban Bayram presentation and even from the limited photos there, what a big difference the alterations and redecoration has made.

I was surprised one morning last week to see, as I drove out of our road, the first almond blossom of the year. I wish my mange tout were doing as well. Out of the row I put in during December only three plants have dared to show their heads, so this week I thought I would have another go, so fingers crossed please.

I think that's all my news for now.

Much love

Pat E

A NEW BIBLE STUDY GROUP IN ST ANDREW'S

The re-formatted Thursday morning Holy Communion services at 10am each week in St Andrew's where, instead of a sermon, a discussion is held between those present on a particular topic or scripture reading, has proved to be very popular.

Starting on Thursday 14th February 2019 a more structured discussion will be held in the Hall AFTER the service each week starting at approx. 10:45am. This will take the form of a study of the Epistle of James and is based on a book by the well-known author Tom Wright.

There are nine sessions in all and, it will be the Lent Study for 2019. Refreshments will be available during each session. All are welcome, whether attending the Communion service beforehand or not.

If you would like to attend please bring along a bible and a notepad. Please also let the Rev'd Michael or Steve Bishop know so that we can make provision for the number attending.

'Every generation in the church worries, rightly, about people who just glide along, who appear to enjoy what they hear, and yet don't seem to make any real difference. James faced a similar situation during the very first days of the church. So, it's not surprising that translating belief into action – making sure that faith is the real thing – is near the heart of his message. That kind of faith, he explains, is the faith that matters, the faith that justifies, the faith that saves. We need that kind of faith today. These nine studies on James's passionate letter help us to live out a faith that makes a difference.'

FAREWELL TO BILL McINTYRE BEM

It was with heavy hearts and great sadness that we said farewell to Bill McIntyre last Thursday, 7th February 2019 at his funeral at the Green Hill British Cemetery. He had passed away in the early hours of Sunday morning after suffering many months of illness, yet he always had a smile on his face. We were so fortunate to have known him, one of life's lovely Christian people.

To quote Isaiah 64 v 1 "I wish you would open up your heavens and come down to us!" It certainly did that Thursday!

Please remember Jacquie and all Bill's family in your prayers.

USED STAMPS

St Andrew's collects used postage stamps which the charity EMBRACE the Middle East sells to raise funds for the Helen Keller Centre for the Blind in Jerusalem, one of the many organisations they support throughout the Middle East.

Special commemorative stamps are particularly desirable, as they receive many regular 1st & 2nd class stamps. If you have suitable stamps, please trim them and bring them to church. Post them in the box just inside the entrance door. They will be greatly appreciated. Thank You.

USED CARDS

Can you help our ladies who enjoy recycling greetings cards to raise funds for St Andrew's by donating your used cards to them. If you are visiting the TRNC and have room in your suitcase do bring them to the church.

Circumstances change rapidly in the Middle East and our Christian partners can find themselves facing almost overwhelming challenges. To know that people many miles away are praying for them is a huge encouragement and one that upholds their faith during difficult times. Here are prayer requests from Embrace, please join with them and give your support.

Vulnerable girls find a safe haven at the International Christian Committee's centre in Acre, Israel. Many have dropped out of school; the centre helps them return to education and to develop their confidence. The girls have recently been learning new skills to deal with difficulties at home and school, and to start planning their future careers. Please pray for them to realise that the future could be bright.

The Deaf Unit in Cairo constantly seeks to develop the knowledge of its staff, who work with hearing impaired children and those with other disabilities. The Unit's latest training programme focuses on communication and psychology, equipping teachers to bring out the best in every student. Please pray for teachers learning new skills to help their students shine.

The humanitarian crisis in the Gaza Strip leaves healthcare services at breaking point, with vital medicines unavailable and few people able to afford to travel in search of treatment. Our partners at Caritas Jerusalem run four mobile medical teams, which visit remote locations to treat illness and injury, and to improve child health through preventive care. Please pray for medical teams reaching out to isolated communities.

Our partners at Habitat for Humanity Lebanon help vulnerable people improve their living conditions. Part of their work assists Palestinian refugees living in crowded and dilapidated accommodation. Habitat finds the most vulnerable families and helps them make their homes healthier and safer through improvements such as providing clean water and new roofs. Please pray for families in need of healthier and more dignified living conditions.

Volunteers from around the world will travel to the West Bank this month to help Palestinian farmers plant olives. Farmers face the constant threat of losing their land and violence from Israeli settlers, which makes the presence of international volunteers vital. Please pray for a safe planting season and for the solidarity of the volunteers to bring a new hope to those living under occupation.

Trees Joyce Kilmer 1886-1919

I Think that I shall never see A poem lovely as a tree.
A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the sweet earth's flowing breast;
A tree that looks at God all day, And lifts her leafy arms to pray;
A tree that may in summer wear A nest of robins in her hair
Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.
Poems are made by fools like me, But only God can make a tree.

Did you know the late Pamela Campbell?

Pamela Campbell was a member of St Andrew's many years ago being the Church Secretary when Linda Smith first came to St Andrew's. Over the years Pamela contributed various items and poems to the magazine. Maybe you met her on one of her return visits to the island?

Pamela has died and her husband Peter and her family wish to have a service in memory of her and to scatter her ashes on the Kyrenia mountain range. An extract from Peter's letter to Rev'd Mike reads:

"We wish to do this act on Saturday 30th March this being the anniversary of Pam's birthday. We wish to start with a short service in St Andrews at 11am, we are putting together a simple a service but would like you to lead it for us. Pam was a prolific poet, singer and artist and some of her material will be included in the service, our middle daughter Beverley is renowned for her eulogies and has agreed give one on this occasion, and we will have two items musical items. The actual scattering will be done in the village of Lapta and we hope to follow this with a family party."

If you knew or met Pamela Campbell please get in touch with Rev'd Mike Graham to pass your recollections on to him.

Diocesan Prayer Requests

During this month please add the following Diocesan needs to your prayers

Friends of the Diocese Pray for those who pray for us.

Mission to Seafarers Bahrain: The mission agency, funded entirely by voluntary donations and legacies, offers a comprehensive ministry of care to all who live and work at sea. There are seafarers' centres in 121 ports around the world. Rejoice in God for the opportunity He has given us to work alongside the Bahrain International Seafarers' Society. Pray for our relationship with the port authorities, for the co-operation we receive from the officials that the seafarers will be able to fully enjoy our services.

Diocesan Retreat House – Katafiyio Pray for all who need refreshment, light, and peace.

Baghdad: St George's Church: receives Iraqi people from different Christian denominations. It also has a compound with a clinic, kindergarten, Mother's Union branch and a big hall for festivals and meetings. The Hope Cultural Centre and School is under construction. Pray that all ministers, staff, and congregations throughout our diocese remain safe by the grace of God.

Anglican Consultative Council Pray for the life of the whole Anglican Communion.

Larnaca: St Helena's: Give thanks for the diverse nature of our congregation, both regulars and visitors. We rejoice in the freshness that this brings to our Church and to all our worship.

GIVING

Our giving should be a prayerful and spiritual expression of all this, like giving a gift to a loved one. When we give we are not paying our dues, but engaging in an act of thanksgiving. Over the past few years we have seen the wider community join with us in giving to those who are needy throughout the world as well as locally. Of course we need financial contributions in order to sustain all that we do. Anything you feel able to give, however small, will be deeply appreciated and understood as encouragement to us to build this work here.

We are now a UK registered charity and we would ask those of you who believe in and support our ministry to change the way you give, and channel it through our charity. Regular giving no matter how small by standing order does facilitate forward planning and budgeting.

Our Gift Aid Officer maintains a register of donors and their "envelope number". So, each week, the donor just needs to write their number on a donation envelope and place it in the collection. If you wish to join this scheme and obtain an "envelope number" please contact our Gift Aid Officer John Worton-Griffiths, who will ask you to complete the Gift Aid Declaration.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

“Come - Everything is Ready”

Friday 1st March
3.30pm

It has been the tradition for over 30 years for St Andrew's Church to join congregations around the world, coming together to celebrate the World Day of Prayer, (note it is no longer Womens' World

Day of Prayer as in these more enlightened times we want to include our brothers too). Our service will be held in Church on Friday 1st March at 3.30pm and we encourage you all to attend and bring your friends and neighbours too. There will be refreshments available in the church hall after the service.

This year's service is entitled “Come - Everything is Ready” and has been prepared by the Christian women of Slovenia.

We extend a special welcome to anyone who will help us to lead the worship. If you feel able, please let Anne Lloyd know so that we can familiarise ourselves with the words and music chosen by the Slovenian women.

Finally, if you can provide a cake large or small to share after the service please let Pat Etherington know.

Creator God...

Anthea Allan

Creator God, we praise and thank you for Slovenia.
From the steep, craggy majestic, mountain splendour of the Alps,
With their running ice cold steams,
To the summer warmth and beauty of the Adriatic shore,
Where the waves lap gently on the beaches during the long summer days.

We praise your name, O Lord.
For the damp smell of the dark pine forests, teeming with insect life,
Where the brown bears roam and lynx hide in the shadows.

We praise your name, O Lord.
For the lush green pastures surrounding family farms,
Where bees hum in fields of growing crops;
For the bright coloured flowers which adorn the countryside, and the free-flying birds, filling the air with their melodic songs.

For all the diversity and beauty of Slovenia's unique land,
We offer our praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord.
