At the Council meeting held on Monday 9th September 2019 the main item on the agenda for that meeting was labelled "The Future of St Andrew's" and was, and is, directly related to our search for a new Chaplain.

One of the main topics under discussion was how much we could afford to pay for a new Chaplain, whenever we might be able to appoint one. Our previous Chaplain resigned suddenly in May 2018. Once she tendered that resignation the Church Council began the search for a new Chaplain by drawing up a parish profile and a profile of the person they were looking for to lead us into the future. But because of the ongoing unavailability of the Hermitage we have no accommodation to offer a new Incumbent. So, we cannot proceed to make a new appointment.

Now that might seem to some people to be the wrong way of approaching this task. Surely if we have faith and trust in God then God will not only find the right person for us, God will also provide the means for us to be able to pay for that person. And if we are truly doing what God wants of us here in St Andrew's, Kyrenia, then God will also provide the wherewithal for us to carry out our mission to God's glory and to the advancement of God's kingdom here in this place in our time. And they would be absolutely right

And it is to this end that we have started a monthly prayer gathering on the first Thursday of each month, following the mid-week Holy Communion service, to pray only for St Andrew's, for our search for a new leader, for our mission here in Kyrenia, and for God's grace to prosper us and provide for our needs. And we know that prayer will be answered.

But like all prayer, the answer will come through the grace and guidance of the Holy Spirit moving in peoples' hearts to respond to God's will for us and for our community.

For as we read in Luke's Gospel, chapter 14 and verses 28 to 32:

.... which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, "This fellow began to build and was not able to finish." Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace.

Jesus here is telling us that we must carefully plan for the future, otherwise like the man building the tower or the king we will be doomed to failure.

Or in the specific case that I'm talking about - employing a new Chaplain - we cannot in all conscience employ someone without knowing that we will be able to continue to pay them for the duration of their employment with us.

And it is because of this that the Council, in discussion with the diocese, have concluded that we are not able to pay a full stipend for a Chaplain, rather that the most we can currently afford is to pay someone approximately half wages plus expenses and, if required, pension payments.

Now this isn't as drastic as it may seem, because that is the way St Andrew's has largely operated in the past. Chaplains have tended to be more mature persons, chronologically gifted, as it were, who were, for example, in receipt of a pension from either their years of service in the church, or from previous employment if they received their call to ministry later in life. So, many Chaplains were ex-Forces who had completed their military service, perhaps even here in Cyprus, and then decided that there was still a bit of life left in the old dog and why not use it here in Kyrenia.

But, I hope, like, the majority of clergy who have a true vocation, they would not have said, "Oh don't call me on such-and-such a day because I only work part-time. Call the Churchwardens instead." I do hope that wouldn't or didn't happen.

But we cannot, and should not, rely simply on the good will, or even conscience, of an ordained minister and expect them to be available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, at our beck and call, under such employment conditions. For that in any other occupation would be called abuse.

The other thing which came out of our discussion on finance at Council is the need for us to be able to plan and budget for all the various calls on our resources: primarily to employ our Chaplain but also to manage the day-to-day running expenses of St Andrew's.

For one of the unique problems we have as a Chaplaincy, which doesn't occur in most parishes in the worldwide church, is that our worshipping congregation consists essentially of three elements:

Permanent residents of North Cyprus - those of us who live here all year round. We reckon that's about 30 - 35 people on our electoral roll - the church's membership list, if you like Swallows (a term which some people dislike but forgive me for using it) - people who have residences "back home", wherever that may be, and also here in North Cyprus, spending part of the time in each one throughout the year.

Visitors who come here on holiday and who we are delighted to welcome to worship with us.

All of us who attend or support St Andrew's will probably see yourself as fitting into one of these categories. And it is only from you that we, here in St Andrew's, can look for the financial support we need - let's be brutally honest - to simply keep going. St Andrew's is a totally self-supporting organisation: we receive no financial assistance from the wider Church, be it diocese or Anglican Communion. All our financial needs have to be met from within ourselves, and the bulk of our finances have to come from direct giving:

- from the money which people put on the plate each Sunday which, of course, in our situation varies in value as exchange rates fluctuate so wildly - the Turkish lira which you give this week is now worth roughly half of what it was at the beginning of last year when converted in pounds sterling, which is what a lot of our major expenses, including Chaplain's wages, are paid in. Also, many of our congregation are on fixed incomes, or, in the case of many of our wonderful students who support us in so many other ways, on little or no income at all, bless them.
- from generous donations or bequests made to the church: some of which are for specific purposes which, to be frank, does not help with our budgeting since that money has to be "ring-fenced" for that purpose. Donations and bequests are best received to help run the church wherever the money is needed.
- from regular giving by standing order in pounds sterling to the church's bank in the UK.
- Another vital source of income for the parish, which does not cost the giver anything, is if those who can and who meet the criteria laid down - primarily being a UK taxpayer - use Gift Aid.

So, on behalf of St Andrew's we appeal to those who are able to give whatever you can by Standing Order, utilising Gift Aid (again, if you are able).

And to our swallows and visitors, those of you who may be supporting your own home church sacrificially, when you're away, if you can, please continue to make a donation, occasionally or regularly by standing order, and Gift Aid, to your other spiritual home here in St Andrew's.

The giving leaflet which is available in church and the website at <https://www.standrewskyrenia.org/giving/> show how to help St. Andrew's financially in these varied ways.

And as we read in 2 Corinthians 9 and verse 7:

Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

Amen

Please remember to inform the Wardens if you know of someone who is unwell or in hospital. We often hear people say, 'I thought you knew'. It is better that we hear several times than not at all.

The Revd Colin Backhouse, RIP

We were deeply saddened to learn of the death of the Revd Colin Backhouse who passed away on 3rd September 2019.

Colin was a man with a deep and personal faith which he shared freely with all whom he met. Following his retirement from parish ministry he gave many years additional service to the Church by assisting in St Andrew's, Kyrenia and other churches within the Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf. Always with a ready smile and a word of encouragement he brought many people to a deeper understanding of their faith and their own personal walk with Jesus Christ.

After a service celebrating his life Colin was laid to rest on 24th September in the parish of Bluntisham in the Diocese of Ely where he served for many years.

Our deepest sympathies are extended to his wife Ingrid and their family.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon him.

To The Friends of St Andrew's

A letter from Pat Etherington

Hello Everyone,

After what seems a very long time I'm back, Still in a bit of a pickle as nothing is where I thought I'd put it but we will get sorted, I hope. Picking up a chest infection on my way back hasn't helped at all, of course.

Most of us will have heard of the Ordination of Justin Arnott on Saturday 21st September and I'm sure you will be pleased to hear that he will be preaching again to us during the month of October.

Over the last month we have welcomed back several of our swallows and also quite a lot of visitors to our services and they have certainly been a varied selection from across the globe.

Sunday the 29th saw us celebrating our Harvest Thanksgiving. The Celebrant was our own Reverend Michal and the Preacher was the Very Reverend Jeremy Crocker, Dean of the cathedral. I think I can safely say the church was full! The ladies had done their usual sterling job for the Bring Share Lunch and as I heard one remark "the result was awesome!" It was lovely to be able to sit in the courtyard and chat to people and catch up on their news.

All the items donated to the Harvest Thanksgiving display will go to the Tulips Food Bank.

There was an item on the pew sheet announcing target the Kurban Bayram collection has raised £500 and a presentation will be made to the Kemal Saraçoğlu Foundation for Children with Leukaemia.

Now that I have moved I don't have a garden with flower beds any more. Just a patio and pots instead but I'm going to give my Mangetout another go and see how I get on. I've got a convenient stone wall I can throw some netting over so I'll give that a try. I'll just have to wait for the weather to cool down a bit and make sure I don't forget to water them.

I think that is all for now.

Love from Cyprus

Visiting Celebrants

Bishop Henry Scriven and his wife Catherine

We are honoured that the Right Revd Henry Scriven, who will be on holiday in North Cyprus, kindly offered his services via Bishop Michael to any Parish in the Diocese on Sundays in October. Taking advantage of this, and the generous offer of cover for a further Sunday by the Revd Justin Arnott, to whom we offer our sincere congratulations following his priesting in the Cathedral on 21st September, together with the Revd Peter Day. Bishop Scriven will celebrate and preach on Sunday 13th and 20th October, and Justin on 27th October.

Bishop Scriven served for many years with the South American Missionary Society. He was consecrated as Suffragan Bishop in Europe by Archbishop George Carey in 1995. He was also commissioned by Edmond Browning as an assistant bishop to the Convocation of American Churches in Europe. From 2002 to 2008, Bishop Scriven served the Diocese of Pittsburgh as assistant bishop.

He was elected as interim General Secretary of the Evangelical Fellowship of the Anglican Communion (EFAC) by the organization's executive committee on 16 July this year.

The bishop is great-great-grandnephew of Joseph Scriven, Irish poet, best known as the writer of the poem which became the hymn "What a Friend We Have in Jesus".

Diocesan Prayer Requests

*During this month please add the following
Diocesan needs to your prayers*

Link with Thika Diocese: Pray for Bishop Julius Wanyoike, his clergy and people, for the continued three-way relationship between Cyprus and the Gulf, Thika, and Exeter.

Jebel Ali: Christ Church hosts 42 diverse congregations. Pray for the new worshipping venue for St Catherine's in Silicon Oasis; that it may be a place of church growth. Pray for other Christian communities in Dubai, who struggle to find a proper worshipping location due to the current regulations. Pray for the transient nature of our congregation, especially those who are returning to home countries in the near future or for those who have recently arrived in Dubai.

Link with Exeter Diocese - Pray for Bishop Robert, his clergy and people.

Famagusta: St Mark's - The vast majority of Christians in Famagusta are international students in the local university and thus St Mark's membership is mostly students. Rejoice that God is not only reconciling, but also providing for the needs of our congregation and those in the community around us. Pray that we might stand fast in our struggles of witnessing and humble service within a wider Muslim and increasingly unhelpful environment. Pray that the challenge of lack of resources for the chaplaincy and ourselves, might not distract us, but rather keep us humble and thankful for all the blessings we do have.

Jerusalem and the Middle East Church Association - Pray for those who promote and support our Province.

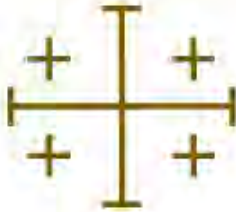

Oman: The Protestant Church in Oman - is a partnership between the Anglican church and the Reformed Church of America. Serving around 1,000 people in four English language congregations, an Arabic and a Korean congregation and host about 60 other congregations in two compounds. Pray for inter-denominational harmony, and the resourcing and encouragement of the many different pastors/priests who use the various church campuses in Oman.

Clergy with permission to officiate - Pray in thanksgiving for clergy who offer voluntary ministry.

GLORIA'S PANELS

On Sunday 22nd September 2019 a beautiful panel depicting the Holy Trinity was unveiled and dedicated in St. Andrew's church. Part of a series depicting the church's liturgical year the panel was lovingly made by Gloria Tattersall and Pat Etherington.

Trinity: - The latest panel to be completed in the wonderful series that Gloria Tattersall has been using her extensive talents on.

Gloria described her latest work to me: A peaceful panel with a background of triangles reflecting trinity, painstakingly pieced by Pat Etherington. Thank you Pat.

Central to the panel are three linked gold circles, in which sit a Gold Crown for God the father, a red [depicting his blood] Cross for Christ his son, and the dove for the Holy Spirit. No words needed.

We thank Gloria and Pat for their exquisite needlework and patience, and pray that these gifts will continue to enhance the worship of the faithful in St. Andrew's for many years to come.

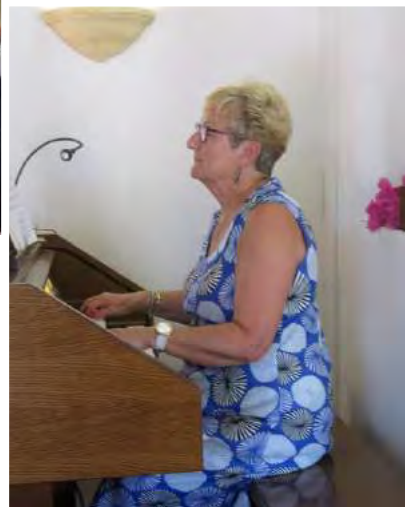

HARVEST LUNCH

Once again St. Andrew's Church was full to overflowing as we celebrated our Harvest Thanksgiving on Sunday 29th September 2019.

We were delighted to welcome the Dean, the Very Revd Jeremy Crocker, as our guest preacher. We were also blessed in that organist Jenny Stott again joined us to lead our worship, as she did last year.

Following the service our Harvest Brunch was held in the church grounds, with the sun smiling down on the many members of the congregation who joined us for a delicious repast provided and served by so many willing volunteers.

Our sincere thanks go to all who helped in any way, and to those who joined us for our celebration.

Giving

Our giving should be a prayerful and spiritual expression of all this, like giving a gift to a loved one. When we give we are not paying our dues, but engaging in an act of thanksgiving. Over the past few years we have seen the wider community join with us in giving to those who are needy throughout the world as well as locally. Of course we need financial contributions in order to sustain all that we do. Anything you feel able to give, however small, will be deeply appreciated and understood as encouragement to us to build this work here.

We are now a UK registered charity and we would ask those of you who believe in and support our ministry to change the way you give, and channel it through our charity. Regular giving no matter how small by standing order does facilitate forward planning and budgeting. The St Andrew's Church Kyrenia UK Charity makes it easy to donate by:

“He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver.”

There was once a group of women studying the book of Malachi in the Old Testament. As they were studying chapter three, they came across verse three, which says: “He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver.” This verse puzzled the women, and they wondered what this statement meant about the character and nature of God. One of the women offered to find out about the process of refining silver and get back to the group at their next Bible study. That week this woman called up a silversmith and made an appointment to watch him at work. She didn’t mention anything about the reason for her curiosity about refining silver. the silversmith, silver over the up. He explained silver, one silver in the where the flames burn away all the woman thought interest beyond her the process of As she watched he held a piece of fire and let it heat that in refining needed to hold the middle of the fire were hottest as to impurities. The about God holding us in such a hot spot – then she thought again about the verse, that he sits as a refiner and purifier of silver. She asked the silversmith if it was true that he had to sit there in front of the fire the whole time the silver was being refined. The man answered “Yes”, and explained that he not only had to sit there holding the silver, but he had to keep his eyes on the silver the entire time it was in the fire. If the silver was left even a moment too long in the flames, it would be damaged. The woman was silent for a moment. Then she asked the silversmith, “How do you know when the silver is fully refined?” He smiled at her and answered, “Oh, that’s easy. When I see my image in it.” If today you are feeling the heat of this world’s fire, just remember that God the Father and His Son Jesus Christ are refining you. "You are predestined to be conformed to the image of Christ." - Author Unknown

Remembrance

November is traditionally a time of Remembrance as the autumn gradually fades away and the darker nights of winter close in, even here in Cyprus.

This year we will once again remember all those whom we have loved and lost, and who are now in a closer walk with God. On All Soul's Day, Saturday 2nd November, at 2:00pm we will have a Service of Thanksgiving at which candles will be lit and the names of those whom we wish to remember will be read out. Please write the names of anyone whom you would like to be remembered on the sheets by the door of the church which will be placed there nearer the day and announced in the pew sheets.

Sunday 3rd November will be observed as All Saints' Sunday.

The following week, 10th November, is Remembrance Sunday. There will be an Act of Remembrance at the 10:30am service in St Andrew's followed by The Royal British Legion Service of Remembrance at the British Cemetery in Kyrenia starting at 12:30pm.

USED STAMPS

St Andrew's collects used postage stamps which the charity EMBRACE the Middle East sells to raise funds for the Helen Keller Centre for the Blind in Jerusalem, one of the many organisations they support throughout the Middle East.

Special commemorative stamps are particularly desirable, as they receive many regular 1st & 2nd class stamps. If you have suitable stamps, please trim them and bring them to church. Post them in the box just inside the entrance door. They will be greatly appreciated. Thank You.

USED CARDS

Can you help our ladies who enjoy recycling greetings cards to raise funds for St Andrew's by donating your used cards to them. If you are visiting the TRNC and have room in your suitcase do bring them to the church.
