God our saviour, look on this wounded world in pity and in power; hold us fast to your promises of peace won for us by your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. AMEN

First Reading: Job 38: 1-11 (NRSV)

The LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind: 'Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. 'Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements - surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy? 'Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb? - when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band, and prescribed bounds for it, and set bars and doors, and said, "Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped"?

Psalms 107: 1-3, 23-32 (Common Worship)

1 O give thanks to the Lord, for he is gracious, for his steadfast love endures for ever.
2 Let the redeemed of the Lord say this, those he redeemed from the hand of the enemy,

3 And gathered out of the lands from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

23 Those who go down to the sea in ships and ply their trade in great waters,

24 These have seen the works of the Lord and his wonders in the deep.

25 For at his word the stormy wind arose and lifted up the waves of the sea.

26 They were carried up to the heavens and down again to the deep; their soul melted away in their peril.

27 They reeled and staggered like a drunkard and were at their wits' end.

28 Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress.

29 He made the storm be still and the waves of the sea were calmed.

30 Then were they glad because they were at rest, and he brought them to the haven they desired.

31 Let them give thanks to the Lord for his goodness and the wonders he does for his children.

32 Let them exalt him in the congregation of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen

Second Reading: Mark 4: 35-41 (NRSV)

When evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us go across to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great gale arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, 'Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?' He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Peace! Be still!' Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, 'Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?' And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?'
