Psalm 31: 9-16

9 Have mercy on me, Lord, for I am in trouble; my eye is consumed with sorrow, my soul and my body also.

10 For my life is wasted with grief, and my years with sighing; my strength fails me because of my affliction, and my bones are consumed.

11 I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbours, an object of dread to my acquaintances; when they see me in the street they flee from me.

12 I am forgotten like one that is dead, out of mind; I have become like a broken vessel.

13 For I have heard the whispering of the crowd; fear is on every side; they scheme together against me, and plot to take my life.

14 But my trust is in you, O Lord. I have said, 'You are my God.

15 'My times are in your hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

16 'Make your face to shine upon your servant, and save me for your mercy's sake.'

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen

We pray also for strength and grace for those who carry the burden of care.

We offer up our prayers for the people of Ukraine; for a swift end to the war in that country; for the refugees trying to reach safety and for all who suffer as a result of mans' inhumanity to man.

We remember those who have departed and those who mourn their loss.
