

It would appear from the latest communication from the government's Communicable Diseases High Committee dated 12/04/22 that "Places of Worship" have been removed from the locations where Adapass checks must be made before entry.

In addition, the regulation stipulating the maximum floor area of premises which may be used has been removed, together with the requirement for social distancing. Mask, hygiene and disinfection rules should still be adhered to.

This means that we can replace the seats which were removed from the church and begin the slow process of getting back to some sort of normality.

However, we will still continue to administer Holy Communion in the way we have been doing lately: people are asked to come to the front of the church individually as directed to receive the communion wafer which they should then dip in the wine (intinct) if they wish to receive in both kinds.

Risen Christ, you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope: strengthen us to proclaim your risen life and fill us with your peace, to the glory of God the Father. AMEN

First Reading: Acts 9: 1-20

Psalm 30

1 I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have raised me up and have not let my foes triumph over me.

2 O Lord my God, I cried out to you and you have healed me.

3 You brought me up, O Lord, from the dead; you restored me to life from among those that go down to the Pit.

4 Sing to the Lord, you servants of his; give thanks to his holy name.

5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, his favour for a lifetime. Heaviness may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.

6 In my prosperity I said, 'I shall never be moved. You, Lord, of your goodness, have made my hill so strong.'

7 Then you hid your face from me and I was utterly dismayed.

8 To you, O Lord, I cried; to the Lord I made my supplication:

9 'What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit? Will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?

10 'Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me; O Lord, be my helper.'

11 You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have put off my sackcloth and girded me with gladness;

12 Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen

Please pray for the following throughout the coming week

"The prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well therefore pray for each other so that you may be healed" James 5:15

Joyce and Alan Calloway, Mavis Steel, Keith Jones, Alan Boutle, Werner Fayers, Nicky Montgomery, Duncan Hadfield, Kathleen Richmond, Sandi Richardson, Alan Poulter, Cora Tyson, Dave Sturgess, Barbara Symons (and Roy), Alice Flamson, Jenny Hayward, Padmesh Gartaula, along with those mentioned in our remembrance book.

We pray also for strength and grace for those who carry the burden of care.

We offer up our prayers for the people of Ukraine; for a swift end to the war in that country; for the refugees trying to reach safety and for all who suffer as a result of mans' inhumanity to man.

We remember those who have departed, in particular June Llewellyn and Digby Jones, and those who mourn their loss.

Please contact the Wardens to include persons to be remembered in our prayers
