9. I have become a stranger to my kindred, an alien to my mother's children.

10. Zeal for your house has eaten me up; the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen upon me.

11. I humbled myself with fasting, but that was turned to my reproach.

18. Answer me, Lord, for your loving-kindness is good; turn to me in the multitude of your mercies.

19. Hide not your face from your servant; be swift to answer me, for I am in trouble.

20. Draw near to my soul and redeem me; deliver me because of my enemies.

as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen

Our prayers have been asked for the following people. Please pray for them throughout the coming week.

For those who are sick, in special need or housebound:

Nasim Akhtar, Jenny Hayward, Emma Collins, Lilly Jones, Monika & Horst Gutowski, Barbara and Roy Symons, and Padmesh Gartaula together with those named in our remembrance book. We pray also for strength and grace for those who carry the burden of care.

The prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well therefore pray for each other so that you may be healed. James 5:15

For those who have died:

We remember those who have died and those who mourn their loss. Pray also for those whose anniversary of passing is at this time.

We offer up our prayers for the people of Ukraine and Sudan; for an end to the war; for refugees trying to reach safety over land and water and for all who suffer as a result of man's inhumanity to man.

Please contact the Wardens to include persons to be remembered in our prayers
