

We offer up our prayers for the people of Ukraine, Sudan and Niger; for an end to all conflict; for refugees trying to reach safety over land and water, thinking particularly of those who lost their lives at sea this week; and for all who suffer as a result of human wickedness, wilfulness and waywardness.

Processional Hymn: 648 God of Grace and God of Glory

Westminster Abbey

Collect:

God of constant mercy, who sent your Son to save us:
remind us of your goodness, increase your grace within us,
that our thankfulness may grow, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

First Reading: Isaiah 51: v 1 - 6

Psalm: 138

1. I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart;
before the gods will I sing praise to you.
2. I will bow down towards your holy temple and praise your name,
because of your love and faithfulness;
for you have glorified your name and your word above all things.
3. In the day that I called to you, you answered me;
you put new strength in my soul.
4. All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord,
for they have heard the words of your mouth.
5. They shall sing of the ways of the Lord,
that great is the glory of the Lord.
6. Though the Lord be high, he watches over the lowly;
as for the proud, he regards them from afar.
7. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will preserve me;
you will stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand will save me.
8. The Lord shall make good his purpose for me; your loving-kindness, O Lord, endures for ever; forsake not the work of your hands.
Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen
