

We offer up our prayers this week for the people of Morocco and Libya who have been affected so tragically by earthquake and floods. We still remember those in Ukraine and Sudan; for an end to all conflict; for refugees trying to reach safety over land and water; and for all who suffer as a result of human wickedness, wilfulness and waywardness.

First Reading: Genesis 50: v 15 - 21

Psalm: 103: v 8 - 13

8. The Lord is full of compassion and mercy, slow to anger and of great kindness.

9. He will not always accuse us, neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10. He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.

11. For as the heavens are high above the earth,

so great is his mercy upon those who fear him.

12. As far as the east is from the west, so far has he set our sins from us.

13. As a father has compassion on his children, so is the Lord merciful towards those who fear him.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;

as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen

Our prayers have been asked for the following people. Please pray for them throughout the coming week.

For those who are sick, in special need or housebound:

Bishop Keith Riglin, Lynn Walton, Anne Fatcher, Nasim Akhtar, Garry Allcock, Alan Squires, Shane Barnes, Jenny and Bob Hayward, Barbara and Roy Symons, and Padmesh Gartaula. We pray also for strength and grace for those who carry the burden of care.

The prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well therefore pray for each other so that you may be healed. James 5:15

For those who have died:

We remember those who have died and those who mourn their loss. We remember Mary Taylor, wife of Lord Kilclooney. Mary and John were regular attenders at St Andrew's during the period 1990 to the early 2000s. Pray also for their families and friends.

Pray also for those whose anniversary of passing is at this time.

Please contact the Wardens to include persons to be remembered in our prayers
